

PRESS RELEASE

27th November 2007

For Immediate Release

Jenny Child's second book was published on Sunday, 25th November at Canterbury Cathedral. Behind the Scenes at Canterbury Cathedral is aptly named, as it is dedicated to the Cathedral and many of the people that work tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure the smooth day-to-day running of one of Britain's best loved landmarks. Behind the Scenes at Canterbury Cathedral is a collection of poems and photographs, portraying many different roles within Cathedral life. Jenny's earlier book A Year at Canterbury Cathedral was published in February 2007 and has proved very popular, raising to date approximately £2,250 for the Save Canterbury Cathedral Appeal.

All proceeds from her second book will also go to the Appeal. The book is now on sale, price £5.00, from the Canterbury Cathedral Shop, 25 Burgate, Canterbury (01227 865300).

"I wanted to bring to the public's notice some of the members of staff that are seldom seen but who play an essential part in the day to day running of the Cathedral" said Jenny earlier today. The Very Revd Robert Willis, Dean of Canterbury, added "Jenny has given us a rich variety of impressions and poetic thoughts accompanied by pictures which express the Cathedral's regular activity and celebrations so well".

This book is the perfect stocking filler for Cathedral enthusiasts and those wishing to do their bit for the Appeal.

ENDS

Notes to Editors

- 1 For further information, please contact Jenny Child on 01227 722892 or Christopher Robinson on 01227 865282.
- 2 I attach a photo of Jenny Child taken at the book launch on the 25th November 2007.

