An appeal for old phones for refugees

From the Anglican Refugee Support Lead in Northern France, the Social Justice Network, USPG and Diocese in Europe, Bradon Muilenburg, who writes:

'Phones are greatly needed by refugees stuck in Northern France, and in extremely short supply. They can allow people to stay in touch with family far away, and to not be separated from family they are traveling with. In many different circumstances having a phone can reduce the dangers faced when someone is isolated, lost, and vulnerable. Since there is so great a need, your phone will be given to those assessed to be the most vulnerable by Refugee Women's Center volunteers starting with pregnant mothers. A phone can make all the difference in getting a woman to the hospital in time for her health, and to protect the life of her unborn child. Before donating:

1. Go into settings to factory reset the phone. On the ground associations have sim cards in stock. Phones that can be used with these are ones that are not locked to one network.

2. If you have the charger, please include it too; even if you don't, chargeless phones are welcome. Likewise, if you have extra chargers laying around, please donate them. We can find matches for them here them here (U.K. wall plugs not necessary).

There will be a collection box for phones in Cathedral House.
