Canterbury Cathedral
August 2025

WELCOME

Welcome

Canterbury Cathedral is the seat of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Canterbury, the Mother Church of the Anglican Communion, and a place of pilgrimage welcoming visitors from across the world.

For over fourteen hundred years God has been worshipped here. With its roots in the Benedictine tradition, the ongoing daily pattern of morning and evening prayer and Eucharist continues the prayers and praises of countless generations in this Cathedral.

Alongside this we host a large number of special services, some regular, some occasional. These mark the feasts of the Church's year and significant events in the life of our local community, or offer opportunities for exploring faith and spirituality in creative and diverse ways.

Whether you are a regular worshipper with us, someone who has come to the Cathedral for a special event, or a visitor making a once in a lifetime journey to Canterbury, you are most welcome and an equal part of this community whose story reaches back to Augustine's mission to England in 597.

We invite everyone who attends our services to contribute to the ongoing costs of maintaining this beautiful Cathedral and investing in our ongoing ministry. It costs us approximately £30,000 a day to care for the building and people of this place and to continue to invest in the high quality of music that is offered here. There are regular collections at the end of our services, you can make use of the digital payment points or scan the QR code below. Whatever you can give it is gratefully received. Thank you.

WORSHIP

Regular worship

At the heart of Cathedral life is the regular rhythm of daily prayer. The day begins each morning with the quiet, said services of Morning Prayer and the 8.00am Eucharist, and ends with the service of Choral Evensong or Said Evening Prayer. In term time Children's Church meets on Sunday mornings. The Cathedral's principal act of worship every week is the 11.00am Sunday Choral Eucharist.

Live streaming

Choral Eucharists on Sunday, Choral Evensongs, and other special services are routinely live-streamed and available on our website and via YouTube. If you attend these services you may be seen on camera, and by attending these services you give your permission to appear in this way. If you have any queries or concerns about this please contact the Precentor in advance (precentor@canterbury-cathedral.org). To watch these services online visit www.canterbury-cathedral.org

Visiting Choirs

Trinity Church, Boston has a rich musical tradition that is lived out weekly, with worship services led by an intergenerational choir community of over 100 adults, professional singers, children and teens. Often considered the largest church choir in the Anglican Communion, the choir sings a substantial amount of choral repertoire and strives to feature works by modern and historically underrepresented composers.

Vokalensemble Novantiqua, Bern was founded in 1987 by Bernhard Pfammatter to perform demanding choral repertoire in a small ensemble. The ensemble has travelled widely in Europe and enjoyed success with major works by Bach, Monteverdi and Purcell, but also tackles more modern and contemporary music.

The choir from the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania is made up of both professional singers and dedicated volunteer singers, as well as school aged choristers. They sing weekly Eucharist and regular services of Choral Evensong and Matins, in addition to yearly concerts. The choir generally tours abroad every 2-3 years and is directed by Andrew Senn.

The Sanderstead Singers was formed in 1991 to sing for a week at Salisbury Cathedral. Its 40 founding members were mostly former singers from the choir of All Saints', Sanderstead. The group has continued to meet nearly every summer singing in 22 cathedrals over 34 years. It still includes several original members, now joined by younger family members. Since 2020, the choir has been directed by Dan Soper (a former Canterbury chorister), who had been their organist since 2002.

The Roden Boys' Choir is a Dutch boys' choir (15 trebles and 13 men) originally from the village of Roden in the Netherlands. Although the singers are not related to any church or religious denomination, their primary objective is to sing Choral Evensong, and they have sung in many different churches and cathedrals throughout The Netherlands. Every two years they come to the United Kingdom to sing Choral Evensong in different cathedrals and this year they will sing services in Rochester Cathedral, St Paul's Cathedral and Canterbury Cathedral.

The Hamburg Bach Choir is the choir of St. Petri, the oldest main church in Hamburg. The church was first mentioned in 1195, and a boys' choir has sung there since 1529. Church musicians such as Jacob Praetorius, Georg Philipp Telemann and C.P.E. Bach have directed the music at St. Petri. The Hamburg Bach Choir was re-established after the war in 1950 as a “Kantorei” and celebrates its 75th anniversary this year. It sings in church services and concerts and regularly performs oratorios ranging from Monteverdi's Marienvesper to Bach's works and Britten's War Requiem.

Join the choir

If you know a boy in school year 2 or 3, or a girl in school year 6 or 7, who enjoys singing, please email music@canterbury-cathedral.org to learn more about becoming a chorister here.

Enquiries are warmly welcomed at any time, and it is possible to meet children and their parents for a conversation, and for informal pre-auditions.
