A FRIENDLY TALK Living Through Two World Wars - Canterbury 1914-1951

Tuesday 16 June, 14:30-15:30 in the Clagett Auditorium

Doreen Rosman returns for a final talk in her series about the history of Canterbury, focusing on one person's experience to evoke what it would have been like to live through this period of tumultuous change. As a teenager, a girl born c 1900 would have seen horses commandeered off city streets for the front, been offered jobs previously restricted to men, and mourned the deaths of lads she had known at school. After the war, she would have witnessed major slum clearance, the building of council estates, delivery vans replacing bicycles, and the opening of huge state of the art cinemas. The 1940s brought renewed rationing, blackouts, war weapons fund-raising, and constant sleep deprivation. The worst of 35 bombing raids flattened the east end of the city - amid whose ruins, as a middle-aged woman, she might have attended a Festival of Britain exhibition. Doreen Rosman taught history at the University of Kent. Her publications include, Canterbury: A History since 1500, the story of a city and its people.

£10 Friends of Canterbury Cathedral; £15 non-members. Includes tea and coffee on arrival.

Welcome to Archbishop Sarah, and Out and About in the Diocese

This morning, as we welcome Archbishop Sarah to preach on her first Pentecost as our Archbishop, the Archdeacon is preaching at the parish of SS Cosmus and Damian in the Blean.

At the end of the service this morning, we will process to the West end of the Cathedral to follow the disciples in inviting the Holy Spirit to drive us out into the world to share the Good News with all people.

Confirmation - September 20th - for children and adults

There will be a Confirmation service at the beginning of the new academic year with classes leading up to that in June and July. If you would like to explore coming to full membership of the Church by taking this step, please email precentor@canterbury-cathedral.org and we will send out details of when classes will take place. We will send out details of the classes over the next week to those who have expressed an interest.

Silent Prayer

We have welcomed the return of Choral Evensong to Thursday 17.30 but as a result we have lost the weekly slot for corporate, public silent prayer (although there is 10 minutes of silent prayer included in Monday's Taizé Service). My colleagues and I are trying to discern how best to address this. Please send me any ideas that come to mind that could be considered further. The Dean

Preachers at Evensong in Eastertide

24th May: The Reverend Jo Richards, Rector of St Dunstan, St Mildred, & St Peter, Canterbury.

31st May: Sir Paul Britton, former senior civil servant, deputy chair of Mind, Chair of the Friends of Kent Churches.

7th June: The Reverend Philip Musindi, Vicar of St Andrew, Reading Street, Broadstairs.

CONCERT: The Central Band of the Royal British Legion

Saturday, 30 May 2026, 18.00, The Nave

Join us in The Nave as we welcome the return of The Central Band of The Royal British Legion for a sensational and heart-stirring concert featuring songs from the shows and stirring military marches. The Central Band is the flagship band of The Royal British Legion and has established itself as a respected and in-demand ensemble. The band's busy schedule has seen recent performances on BBC's The One Show, the Royal Albert Hall, the Championship Finals at Wimbledon, Cadogan Hall, and Westminster Abbey. This is a fundraising concert for The Friends of Canterbury Cathedral; Charity Number 1210093.

Refugee Week 2026 - Courage - Monday 15 - Sunday 21 June

For refugees around the world, courage is often a daily necessity. It is the courage to face unknown journeys, learn new languages, navigate unfamiliar systems, or simply to wake up each morning and step into an uncertain world. At a time when some seek to divide and blame, Refugee Week 2026 calls us to come together and share the courage to welcome, to stand for what we believe in, and to celebrate culture and community - to be joyful, imagine new possibilities, dream, heal, and connect. Refugee Week 2026 marks 75 years since the Refugee Convention - a landmark agreement affirming that those forced to flee deserve protection, dignity, and hope. At Canterbury Cathedral, we will be marking this Week with hourly prayers for refugees, a designated Chapel in the Cathedral, and two special services of Eucharist.

Organised by Canterbury Cathedral, The Social Justice Network and the Kent Refugee Action Network (KRAN).

Courageous Communities: Sanctuary & Racial Justice Conference, 19 June 2026

Organised by Canterbury Cathedral, the Diocese of Canterbury Social Justice Network, and the Kent Refugee Action Network (KRAN): a Refugee Week event with a Christian character and open to all - churches, organisations, community groups, and people of faith and none. Whether you're seeking ways to live out the Gospel in today's world or to engage deeply in refugee inclusion and racial justice, you are warmly invited.

Venue: Canterbury Cathedral, CT1 2EH. Free to attend. Ticket required, as spaces limited. Lunch will also be provided. If you have any allergies or dietary requirements, please notify us at the time of registering. Register your interest online via Eventbrite, and discover more special events for Refugee Week: www.canterbury-cathedral.org/RW26

Thomas More Commemoration service, St Dunstan's church, Monday, 6 July, 19.30

St Thomas More's head is buried in the Roper Vault of St Dunstan's Church because his daughter, Margaret, married into the Roper family. Each year a service of commemoration is held at St Dunstan's.

The guest speaker this year is Sir Mark Warby. Sir Mark was appointed a Court of Appeal Judge in 2021, having previously been a High Court Judge. Before beginning his judicial career, he was a barrister and later a QC specialising in media and sports law.

The title of his talk will be More and more: law and the Charterhouse in London. When Thomas More was a young barrister, he lived and worshipped daily at the Charterhouse, which was then a Carthusian monastery. Sir Mark will describe More's involvement with the Charterhouse, and also that of later lawyers with the institution, now an almshouse.

Refreshments will be served at St Dunstan's after the service.

FREE* Summer Recitals with our Cathedral Choral Scholars

Wednesday 3 June - James McNinch (Tenor), Wednesday 10 June - Lydia South (Mezzo)
Wednesday 17 June - Stephen Beale (Bass). Recitals take place in the Crypt immediately after the 12:30 Lunchtime Eucharist.

*Included free with a valid Cathedral Admission Ticket, Cathedral Pass or Friends' Card. Children aged 17 and under go free (T&Cs apply).

Planet Israel. Curzon Cinema, Westgate, 10 June, 18.20, discussion panel afterwards

There will be a screening of the new film, which sets out to examine why 73% of Jewish Israelis were polled as supporting the way the war's been fought in Gaza. British/American Jew and filmmaker, Gillian Mosely wanted to know what has happened to make any Jews, a people who have experienced oppression, othering, and genocide, exhibit such moral and humanitarian numbness.

Discussion panel afterwards, chaired by Jonathan Arnold, Michael Ramsey Professor in Theology and Director of the Social Justice Network. To find out more and to book tickets visits

Sacred Resonance by Renaud Muraire

Reimagining Christian Iconography at Canterbury Cathedral 21 May - 8 September 2026

Renaud Muraire's paintings create a powerful dialogue between traditional Christian iconography and contemporary human experience. Drawing on biblical narratives that continue to resonate today, his work explores universal emotions, challenges, and aspirations, offering space for reflection on identity and lived experience.

Influenced by High Renaissance and Baroque masters such as Michelangelo, Raphael, Caravaggio, and Rubens, Muraire presents biblical figures as deeply human, using gesture, colour, and expression to bring emotional immediacy to familiar stories. His work honours the historic role of sacred art as a source of comfort, guidance, and shared belief, while reinterpreting it for a modern audience. Exhibited in the Eastern crypt of Canterbury Cathedral, these paintings present sacred imagery as a living language. They encourage audiences of all backgrounds to reflect on their own journeys, transforming timeless themes of compassion, love, and redemption into reflections of contemporary life.

'Climb the Corona' Tour

Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays in April - September*

* Tours will run on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 22nd April to 19th September - except 1st, 29th & 31st July, due to closures.

The Corona Chapel was built in the 12th century to house the crown - 'corona' in Latin - of St Thomas Becket's skull, which had been sliced off during his murder and was revered as a saintly relic.

Explore the chapel, usually closed to the public, giving you the opportunity to explore the tombs of Cardinal Reginald Pole and Archbishop Temple, and view the wonderful stained glass windows in more detail, before climbing the 95 steps to the top of the Corona Tower itself and experience amazing views across the city in all directions.

This tour offers a unique opportunity to see the city of Canterbury differently - as well as some hidden stone carvings atop the tower. £12 per person, plus Cathedral admission charge.

This is a popular tour; pre-booking advised to avoid disappointment.

Please read full tour information and restrictions on the website before booking.

Please ensure you arrive at the Cathedral Visitor Centre at least 15 minutes before the tour starts to check-in. You will be required to sign a disclaimer on the day, to confirm you have understood and will abide by these restrictions. Please note, this tour is weather dependent. In the event of cancellation due to bad weather, tickets may be exchanged for an alternate date.
