Welcome from Dean David

Our theme this year is - JOURNEYING TO CHRISTMAS

This Christmastide, we will be highlighting and remembering all the journeys in the birth of Jesus, but also all the journeys we all take at this time, not least moving from one year to the next.

The Christmas Star led people to Jesus, the Prince of Peace. We are invited to journey to him, to find eternal peace too.

At the Cathedral we are aware of how the combination of faith, history, architecture, community and the arts shape our life journeys and help us to recover and heal.

All are welcome to join us for our traditional services and carols, brand new services and events, child-friendly activities, beautiful trees and decorations, and the return of the historic Cathedral Christmas Market.

Please come on the journey with us this Advent and Christmas, as together we are transformed.

David Monteith, Dean of Canterbury

Cross-Currents: Life as Journey at Canterbury Cathedral

Until 15 February 2025

Artist: Frances Carlile

Curated by: Jacqueline Creswell

Canterbury Cathedral has for centuries been the focus of pilgrimages and journeys started in hope and faith.

Cross-Currents is an installation of hundreds of beautiful, delicate hand-crafted boats embarked on their own journey through the vast architecture of Canterbury Cathedral, each fragile boat symbolizing the transient passage of the life of an individual.

These beautiful and fragile hand-crafted boats serve as a powerful metaphor for the impermanence of life and human vulnerability.

Participating in the creative process is very much a part of this exhibition; visitors and the community will have an opportunity to participate in the Cross-Currents voyage through the practice of creating a boat themselves to accompany the fleet.

*This exhibition is included free with a valid Cathedral Admission Ticket, Cathedral Pass or Friends Card. Children aged 17 and under go free (T&Cs apply).

© Jacqueline Creswell and Frances Carlile

In an ecclesiastical setting, Cross-Currents prompts contemplation on the shared experiences of seeking sanctuary, embarking on spiritual quests, and navigating the unpredictable waters of life.

These painstakingly-crafted magical creations remind us of the fragility of life itself. The ephemeral nature of the boats displayed, created from materials collected from the forest floor and along our coastline, reminds us of the impermanence of our earthly existence. Like boats adrift on the sea, we navigate the unpredictable currents of life, seeking stability and purpose amidst the waves.

The exhibition prompts us to reflect on our own journey through life and the choices we make along the way, inviting us to consider the human cost of displacement and the importance of offering assistance or sanctuary to those we meet on their journey. As we all take a path toward deeper connection with the divine, we are reminded of our shared humanity and the interconnectedness of all beings.

Did you know?

It takes more than 6 miles of twinkling festive lights, and over 118,000 LEDs, to decorate Canterbury's medieval streets and buildings at Christmas!

There will be free entry to the Precincts during the market – sightseers will only need to pay to go inside the Cathedral and Cloister during visiting hours – and a variety of fun low and no cost community activities.

A collaboration between the Cathedral, Canterbury BID and Rockhopper Events, this is an extension to Canterbury's existing much-loved traditional festive market which spans the city centre.

As always, it is free to attend a service or to come into the Cathedral to pray, with donations welcome.

Canterbury's expanded Christmas Market will open on 15th November 2024 with the Christmas Light Parade and run until 24th December 2024.

Canterbury Cathedral Christmas Market

15 November - 24 December 2024

with FREE Precincts Access

Visitors to the beautiful city of Canterbury this winter will be in for a rare festive treat as a historic 600-year-old Christmas market returns to the grounds of Canterbury Cathedral.

First held in the Cathedral Precincts in 1383 following a royal grant by King Richard II, the Cathedral's seasonal markets were hugely popular and ran for hundreds of years.

Reviving this centuries-old tradition for 2024, the modern Christmas market will feature a range of picturesque German-style wooden huts within the Cathedral Precincts, as well as delicious food and drink outlets, a vintage-style carousel ride, and live music performances – including Saturday Shoppers' Carol Services.

Did you know?

Canterbury Cathedral's festive market ran from 1383 until 1813 when, following concerns of 'indecent and tumultuous conduct', it closed for the final time.
