50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SHOOTING OF JONATHAN DANIELS

This summer marks the 50th anniversary of the death of Jonathan Daniels, a seminarian and civil rights activist. He is commemorated in the Chapel of the Saints and Martyrs of Our Own Time here at Canterbury Cathedral. Jonathan was a student at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, Cambridge, Massachusetts, in the USA, and it was while helping with the campaign for Civil Rights in Hayneville, Alabama, that he was shot and killed by a Deputy Sheriff on August 20th, 1965.

Canterbury Cathedral is marking the anniversary of his killing on the penultimate day of its annual Conference for Seminarians and Ordinands from across the Anglican world, on Monday 15th June.

There will be an open lecture on contemporary martyrdom given by Dr. Andrew Chandler, Director of the George Bell Institute, and editor of 'The Terrible Alternative, a series of essays of 20th century Christian martyrs', at 2.30pm, in the Auditorium, the ISC, Canterbury Cathedral.

The lecture will be followed by a presentation in which five of Jonathan's contemporaries (including Bishop Peter Selby) will give an account of how Jonathan's death affected their lives and ministries.

Jonathan Daniels will then be commemorated at a special Choral Evensong that afternoon, at 5.30pm in the Cathedral.

All are most welcome, and further information can be obtained from Canon Christopher Irvine, the Director of Education, Canterbury Cathedral, email: Directorofeducation@canterbury-cathedral.org

MUSIC FOR A SUMMER'S EVENING The Friends of Nackington Church welcome you to an evening with Lees Court Music, on Thursday 18th June at 7.30 in the church, followed by delicious wine and canapes served outside if the weather is kind. Tickets are £10 each and available from Ann Meardon 01227 462034.

FILM CLUB next meets on Sunday 21st June. Please note this is not the usual last Sunday of the month! Tea at 4.30pm, film starts at 4.45pm. In the film The Way, Tom, played by Martin Sheen, comes to France to collect the remains of his adult son, killed in the Pyrenees while walking The Camino de Santiago. Driven by a profound sadness and desire to understand his son better, Tom decides to make the pilgrimage himself. On the way he meets others looking for greater meaning in their lives. "Moving and incredibly uplifting". Length, 2 hours. Visitors welcome.

CATHEDRAL CHORISTERS CONCERT Saturday 27th June, 7.30pm in the Cathedral Quire, in aid of the Choir Bursary Fund and the Graeme Hamilton Memorial Fund. Tickets £15 (children under 16 free), available by post or in person, from The Friends' Office, 8 The Precincts, Canterbury CT1 2EE.

HELP URGENTLY NEEDED Richard Norman who runs our Traidcraft stall at post-11am service drinks does not have a car and needs transport for himself and his boxes of goodies from his home in the Forty Acres /Beaconsfield Road area of Canterbury to The Precincts and back again afterwards. There are normally 6 boxes, 60 cm x 40 cm x 20 cm, which stack on top of one another and fit reasonably easily into the boot or on the back seat of a car. The Traidcraft stall has become an important part of our congregational life and enables us to think about and support Fair Trade. Without transport this will not be possible. We need either someone who is able to offer transport each last Sunday of the month (with a couple of exceptions) or a small team of people who would share this job between them. If you can help please contact Richard direct at richardnorman@gn.apc.org, or speak to Canon Clare.

JOIN THE FRIENDS AT THE TOWER OF LONDON & THE BRITISH LIBRARY! The Friends of Canterbury Cathedral have two exciting trips in July. On Wednesday 1st July, we will be visiting the Tower of London, the scene of Britain's most dramatic, fascinating and surprising history. Tickets are £35 for Friends and £40 for guests.

On Wednesday 22nd July, we are off to the British Library for the special exhibition Magna Carta: Law, Liberty & Legacy. Tickets for this trip are £32 for Friends and £37 for guests. There is return coach travel from three collection points in Canterbury for both trips. Please contact The Friends' Office at 3 The Precincts or call 01227 865292 to book places. If you are not a member of The Friends, why not join us on this trip to find out more about our active community?

MONDAY 27th to FRIDAY 31st JULY

4 NIGHT STAY AT ST CUTHMAN'S, COOLHAM, SUSSEX

Come and enjoy this beautiful country house in extensive grounds. Daily worship and time for shared reflection, led or self-planned walks and outings to local places of interest. Single or twin ensuite rooms, £300 all inclusive. Led by Canon Clare. To register your interest and for booking forms please contact Clare ASAP, on 01227 865227 or email canonclare@canterbury-cathedral.org

'SON OF MAN' STATUE You may have seen that this bronze figure of Jesus, which stood in the Precincts on the south east of the cathedral is no longer there. Originally made by David McFall as an entry in the competition to fill the niche on the Christ Church gate, it was designed to be viewed high on the gate. Optically the large hands would then have been visible but more balanced. In current changes to the south Precincts, we hope it will shortly be installed on the campanile mound.

FIND THE FRIENDS The Friends of Canterbury Cathedral are on the move! On Monday 15th June, they shall be relocating to No 3 The Precincts – just a short walk along the terrace from their old Office. The Friends' Office will therefore be closed on that day and will re-open on Tuesday 16th June. The telephone numbers (01227 865292/865347) will remain the same. The Friends look forward to seeing you in their new home.

KEEP IN CONTACT You can now keep up to date with all the latest Cathedral news on Twitter. Follow us @No1Cathedral. You can also find the notice sheet on our website www.canterbury-cathedral.org

THE COLLECTION If you are a UK tax payer we would encourage you to use the Cathedral's Gift Aid envelope for your donation. Please ensure that you complete all sections of the envelope including the box confirming that you are a UK taxpayer. The Cathedral will reclaim an extra 25p for every £1 placed in the envelope. Gift Aid envelopes can be obtained from the stewards.
