Thank you for taking part in Adrian Bawtree’s Dean’s Challenge to raise £90 for the 90th Anniversary of The Friends of Canterbury Cathedral.

In September, Adrian Bawtree challenged Friends, School Friends, and Cathedral visitors to vote for their top 10 favourite hymns, carols, and songs of worship. In just three months, over 2000 votes were cast and 382 hymns were put forward as hymns that should be included. The Friends of Canterbury Cathedral was founded in 1927 and is the oldest organisation of its kind. We are admirers of the building, its history, and its community. We are part of the Cathedral and have been working together since 1927 to cherish it forever. In the past 90 years, we have given the equivalent of almost £14 million towards many individual and vital projects.

The Friends would like to thank Adrian Bawtree, David Knight, Liam Ryan, the Vesturer and Virgers, and the Stewards for their help in achieving The Dean’s Challenge today.
