

Services & Music List

Canterbury Cathedral
October 2021

WELCOME

A message from the Dean

The month of October sees a change from summer to autumn and our music and anthems begin to reflect that change. Happily the relaxation of restrictions connected with Covid-19 mean that our services are now back in the regular places in Quire and Nave and are available for those who come to the Cathedral and also for those from all over the world who join us online. The month begins with the celebration of the Harvest Thanksgiving and also, on the eve of the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, the afternoon Pets Service outside on the Oaks. October also gives us the Feast of St Luke with its focus on health and healing but also, hopefully, a few warm days around 18 October traditionally known as St Luke's summer. As the month comes to a close two Apostles make their appearance with Saint Simon and Saint Jude giving a spread of different musical opportunities during a month which sees the Canterbury Festival. This booklet gives a foretaste day by day of worship and music we may enjoy and share during these weeks of autumn.

MUSIC

Concerts

On Friday 1 October, the opening recital on the Cathedral's newly-rebuilt organ will be given by distinguished international concert organist, Nathan Laube. Nathan will play the following programme, designed to show off the extraordinarily expressive scope of the instrument following its major overhaul by celebrated organ builders Harrison and Harrison:

Charles-Marie Widor, Symphonie no. 6 pour Grand Orgue, op. 42, no. 2: Allegro
Percy Whitlock, Fantasia Choral no. 1 in D flat
Franz Liszt (transc. Nathan J. Laube), Sonata in b, S. 178
Richard Wagner (transc. E.H. Lemare; Nathan J. Laube), Overture to Tannhäuser

There will be two further recitals given later in the term by the Cathedral's resident Assistant Organists, Adrian Bawtree (Friday 15 October) and Jamie Rogers (Friday 19 November). All organ recitals will start at 7.30pm and will last approximately 70 minutes.

Additionally, a series of three jazz concerts have been curated by the Cathedral's Acting Second Assistant Organist, Jamie Rogers, who is also Head of Jazz Studies at Queen Mary's University in London. The first of these performances took place on Friday 24 September, and proved hugely popular. The next, entitled 'Jazz Time-Walking', will be given on Friday 8 October by Henry Bersey (saxophone), Jamie Rogers (piano) and Will Bersey (bass); on Friday 12 November, David Rees-Williams and Jamie Rogers (both piano) will present 'Reimagined'.

On Saturday 20 November, the Girls and Lay Clerks of the Cathedral Choir will perform J.S. Bach's Christmas Oratorio in the Quire. They will be joined again by internationally-acclaimed period instrument ensemble, The Harmonious Society of Tickle-Fiddle Gentlemen, and a stellar line-up of soloists.

MUSIC

Visiting Choirs

The Cathedral Choir will take its half term break in the last week of the month. During that time, the Cathedral is delighted to welcome the following visiting choirs, who will sing at Evensongs:

Lees Court Music is a Canterbury-based chamber choir which sings as a visiting choir at English Cathedrals, at weddings and events, and in concerts in small country churches in Kent in support of local fund-raising.

The Cavendish Choir was formed over twenty-five years ago by a group of singers who knew each other at Durham University. Drawing membership nationally, the choir has sung at Cathedrals across Britain, singing for services when the regular choir is on holiday. The Choir's name was inspired by the little known English composer, Michael Cavendish (1565 -1628) a musician of the Tudor and Jacobean courts.

St Clement's Church Choir sings the regular services in the Cinque Port town of Sandwich. Music is traditional and is based around its enthusiastic open-access SATB adult choir which includes members from all walks of life. It values the opportunity to sing in its local cathedral in Canterbury as well as other Cathedrals in the south-east.

The choir of St John's, Barham consists of local people of all ages, who love to sing traditional church music. They sing at their weekly Eucharists and Evensongs and other services and are very pleased to be singing regularly once more.

The Gundulf Consort is a new ad hoc group of experienced church musicians based in Rochester, formed primarily to act as a cathedral visiting choir.

Join the choir

On Saturday 6 November, the Cathedral will host an Open Afternoon for prospective boy choristers. If you know a boy in school year 2, 3 or 4, who enjoys singing, please encourage them to attend to experience a taste of life as a chorister.

Boys will have the opportunity to try on robes, to process, and to sing with the current cohort of choristers; they will visit Choir House for activities, tea, and play time. Parents will have the chance to meet staff and current chorister parents.

Boy chorister auditions will take place on Saturday 13 November.

For more information, please visit www.canterbury-cathedral.org/whats-on/event/join-the-choir-chorister-open-afternoon/

The next round of auditions for prospective girl choristers will take place in June 2022.

It is always possible to meet children – boys and girls – and their parents for a conversation, and for informal pre-auditions. Please contact david.newsholme@canterbury-cathedral.org to make an enquiry.

More information about the Cathedral's musicians can be found at www.canterbury-cathedral.org/worship/choir

Thursday 14 October

Thursday 4 November

Silent or contemplative prayer began around the fourth century and Julian Meetings (after Julian of Norwich) have been held nationwide since 1973 for people of all denominations, faiths and none who wish to join with other in the practice of silent prayer; to give time and space to allow God's stillness by laying everything aside, just 'being', not 'doing'. Resting in the present moment. Meetings gather at the south door of the Cathedral after Evensong, and then we go down into the Crypt. A sentence or meditation is read followed by half an hour's silent prayer. For further information please contact Canon Emma: emma.pennington@canterbury-cathedral.org
