WELCOME

A message from the Dean

Welcome to the worship of Canterbury Cathedral during the month of November. The month begins with the glorious Feast of All Saints with all its hymns and music associated with this autumn festival and a vision of the glory of the music and worship of Heaven itself. This is followed by the more gentle atmosphere of the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed or All Souls' Day on 2nd November. That theme of commemoration continues through Remembrance services as the month proceeds. November marks the end of one Christian Year and the beginning of another on Advent Sunday. We hope that the spread of music and worship set out here will be a resource and encouragement to your prayers and journey whether you join us in the Cathedral or join us on-line from wherever you are in the world.

With every blessing,

Robert Willis,
Dean of Canterbury

Concerts

On Friday 12 November at 7.30pm, the third and final performance in a series of jazz concerts curated by the Cathedral's Acting Second Assistant Organist, Jamie Rogers, will take place in the Crypt. The concert will be given by David Rees-Williams and Jamie Rogers, who will play music by Buxtehude, Bach and Franck, reimagined for piano and organ.

On Friday 19 November at 7.30pm, Jamie Rogers will play the final recital of this year's organ recital series, which celebrates the Cathedral's magnificent organ, newly-rebuilt by Harrison and Harrison.

On Saturday 20 November at 7.30pm, the Girls and Lay Clerks of the Cathedral Choir will perform J.S. Bach's Christmas Oratorio in the Quire. They will be joined again by internationally-acclaimed period instrument ensemble, The Harmonious Society of Tickle-Fiddle Gentlemen, and a stellar line-up of soloists.

For further information about all of these concerts, and to book tickets, please visit the following address: www.canterbury-cathedral.org/whats-on/events

Visiting Choir

On Saturday 20 November, Evensong will be sung by The Crypt Choir of The King's School Canterbury. The Crypt Choir is the school's senior choir; its primary purpose is to provide music for weekly School services in Canterbury Cathedral, where the King's School is part of the Foundation. The choir also performs in concerts and services at outside venues, most recently at The Royal Naval College, Greenwich, St Giles' and St Mary's Cathedrals in Edinburgh and in the chapel of King's College Cambridge, whilst recent tours have taken the group to China, Australia, Prague and Rome.

The Choir has provided a useful training ground for pupils going on to university and achieving choral awards and a great number of former choristers from Cathedrals and Colleges such as Canterbury, St Paul's, Westminster Abbey, St John's, Cambridge and King's, Cambridge have performed in this choir in recent years.

Join the Cathedral Choir

On Saturday 6 November, the Cathedral will host an Open Afternoon for prospective boy choristers. If you know a boy in school year 2, 3 or 4, who enjoys singing, please encourage them to attend to experience a taste of life as a chorister.

Boys will have the opportunity to try on robes, to process, and to sing with the current cohort of choristers; they will visit Choir House for activities, tea, and play time. Parents will have the chance to meet staff and current chorister parents.

Boy chorister auditions will take place on Saturday 13 November.

For more information, please visit the following webpages:

www.canterbury-cathedral.org/worship/choir/choristers-2/

The next round of auditions for prospective girl choristers will take place in June 2022.

It is always possible to meet children – boys and girls – and their parents for a conversation, and for informal pre-auditions. Please contact music@canterbury-cathedral.org to make an enquiry.

More information about the Cathedral's musicians can be found at www.canterbury-cathedral.org/worship/choir
