A message from the Dean

Welcome to Canterbury Cathedral and to this programme for the music to be used in our worship through the month of February. February begins with The Presentation of Christ in the Temple, normally called Candlemas, so that on the evening of 2 February the service of Choral Evensong will not only celebrate that feast but also end the season of Epiphany and we cease to look back to the events of Christmas and the signs of the Epiphany and begin to look forward to our journeys through Lent which will begin on 2 March and culminate in our celebration at Easter in April. This gives us an opportunity for many different kinds of music and the transition seasonally from winter to spring. At the same time those of you coming to the Cathedral will notice how the deck in the Nave is now being taken down and the vaults and windows above are being revealed so that light will begin to flood into the Nave of the Cathedral and we shall once again enjoy the full height of that magnificent space as we worship.

Robert Willis
Dean of Canterbury

Visiting Choirs

St Luke's, Chelsea has had a strong musical tradition for many years and is one of the few central London churches that fields an adult choir of amateur singers. The choir sings at St Luke's for Sung Eucharist and Evensong each Sunday. It has also appeared on TV and radio and has sung at many cathedrals and other major churches. The choir is directed by Jeremy Summerly and the organist is Rupert Jeffcoat.

St Leonard's, Hythe has a long choral tradition and the Choir of Boys and Men can be traced back to the 15th century. There is now also an adult mixed choir and a girls' choir. Singers from all the church choirs are joined for this service by members of the Shepway Singers who are also based at the church. The choirs are all directed by Berkeley Hill and the organist for this service is Tim Parsons.

The Cecilian Choir is a by-invitation choir comprising University of Kent staff, students and alumni. Repertoire ranges from Hassler to Hepplewhite, with a particular emphasis on contemporary works. As well as performing sacred works, the choir takes part in staged works, including Dido and Aeneas and Alice in Wonderland.

Lees Court Music is a Canterbury based chamber choir which sings as a visiting choir at English Cathedrals, at weddings & events, and in concerts in small country churches in Kent in support of local fund-raising.

Goodnestone Choir was formed in 2013. The choir currently has a membership of around 30 with most members coming from Goodnestone and surrounding villages. The choir sings regularly for services and events at Holy Cross Church, Goodnestone, and in the local area. The choir was founded and is directed by Denyer Kittle.

The Occasional Singers is a group of local singers who meet a few times each year to sing the services in the Cathedral. The choir is generally directed by one of the cathedral organists and gives an opportunity for local singers to lead the worship during the Cathedral Choir's holidays.

Join the Cathedral Choir

On Saturday 26 February, the Cathedral will host an Open Afternoon for prospective boy choristers. If you know a boy in school year 2, 3 or 4, who enjoys singing, please encourage them to attend to experience a taste of life as a chorister.

Boys will have the opportunity to try on robes, to process, and to sing with the current cohort of choristers; they will visit Choir House for activities, tea, and play time. Parents will have the chance to meet staff and current chorister parents.

Boy chorister auditions will take place on Saturday 12 March.

For more information, please visit <https://www.canterbury-cathedral.org/whatson/event/join-the-choir-chorister-open-afternoon/>

The next round of auditions for prospective girl choristers will take place in June 2022.

Enquiries are warmly welcomed at any time, and it is possible to meet children and their parents for a conversation, and for informal pre-auditions. Please contact music@canterbury-cathedral.org
