Sacred Space

Starting Wednesday 26 January

Sacred Space is an open and inclusive gathering for students and young adults

We meet at weekly at 7pm on Wednesdays during University term-time in Canterbury Cathedral Crypt for music, contemplation and discussion about the big questions of life.

Meetings are followed by food and chat.

All are welcome - we look forward to seeing you!
The friendly and welcoming atmosphere is absolutely outstanding. The meetings in the Gypj are great to make friends and to take a break from our daily stress.

The music and singing was what I really enjoyed... and the food of course.

Sacred Space is my refuge.

I love finishing work on Wednesday and knowing that I’ll be among good people in a mindful & beautiful space.

Sacred Space was my mid-week anchor during a tough PLC year! Whether I was having a challenging or occasionally good one, it was a chance to pause and recharge!! A mid-week appointment with God, not to be missed.

Sacred Space draws on the wisdom, prayer, and music of the Christian tradition which is the Cathedral’s heritage, but also is enriched by the creativity and inspiration found beyond that tradition as well. People of all faiths and none are all very welcome to attend.
